GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Last Rites Upon Remains of Kendall Holt, Veteran
Journalist

The funeral service conducted in honor of the deceased A. Kendall Holt yesterday afternoon, at the Congregational church, was one of the largest attended in the history of that church. Rev. J. H. McLaren conducted the service, which was an altogether beautiful and a most impressive one.

The Masonic fraternity conducted the last sad rites at Evergreen, following the ceremonies at the church, and hundreds of friends and relatives followed the remains to the last resting place on this earth.

The choir at the church sang feelingly "We Would See Jesus." Dr. McLaren then spoke at some length upon the life of the man who had passed into the great beyond. The minister seemed to uplift instead of depressing his hearers by the words of advice which he gave. He said death had long ceased to be such a black thing. People these days are not so prone to cry over the death of a relative or friend; they feel now that God is taking into a better and a far brighter world the one whom we have loved on earth.

The charm of childhood can be greatly enhanced by the wearing of neat articles of jewelry, to kind suited to youth. For instance, a pretty necklace or a bracelet looks well upon a little girl, and they are really fine personal adornments. We have a large variety of jewelry suited to the young. In looking through our goods you will see scores of pretty things that might suggest themselves as likely presents for your little daughter, niece or friend.

His Dear Old Mother

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty-three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children, too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Adams-Johnson Drug Co. 50 cents.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by J. D. SeBrell, the druggist.

SOCIAL NEWS

Spinster Tea

The initial teacher's affair of the season was a "spinster party" given by the Misses Ivins, St. John and Fowler Saturday afternoon to about forty-five teachers at their home, 1060 Almond street. The hostesses were dressed to represent seasons of various periods, Miss Ivins being an old Quaker maiden with her knitting and speaking the "plain language." Miss St. John was a belle of the forties, and Miss Fowler was a dame of '71.

The house was decorated with wild sunflowers and black cats, the brilliant color scheme being carried out in the table decorations. In the hoed-dancing contest, of which Mrs. Smith and Miss Lockwood were judges, Miss Jones won first prize. Miss Webber second, and Miss Hoffmann the booby prize. The prizes were pictures of cats in various attitudes, ready for framing. Miss Webber was successful in a man hunt, and was rewarded with the man she found and a marriage license.

The refreshments were weak tea and toast, followed by ice cream and cake. Mrs. Dearborn, Mrs. Smith, Miss Lockwood, Miss Charles and the little Misses Helen Waldo and Marguerite Peters assisted the hostesses in serving.

POLICE GAZETTE

Justice Stephenson had before him yesterday James Hale, F. J. Saunders and Frank Howard, accused of being vagrants, and gave each of them a 60 day floatorial sentence, pending their hurrying away from town.

John Singer, a Corona youth, was picked up by the officers in a box car and when questioned by the Justice stated that he was the tool of some hoober who took him to an empty box car to sleep. The Justice allowed him to go on promise of good behavior.

Justice French had before him one Meadows, charged with drunkenness, and as this was his third offense the Justice gave him a fine of $10.

Two other drunks got $5 each. One man arrested for riding on the sidewalk was fined the customary $5.
