COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES JUNE 11

Apricots Bring $27 a Ton. "The Private Secretary" Creditably Rendered at Opero House—Brevities.

[Enterprise Special News Service]
HEMET, May 22.—Commencement will be held at the opera house on the evening of June 11 at 8 o'clock, and the following program will be given: Orchestra; prayer, Rev. Chas. S. Vail; orchestra; "America's Resources," Grace Allen; "The Trust Problem," O. Lister Sears; violin, Harry Jones; "Not at the Top, But Climbing," Ruth Jennings; "The New Word on the Pacific," Sidney L. Boughn; chorus, high school; orchestra; "Our Golden Emblem," Lorna De Vana; "Money Getting as a Moral Issue," J. Boyd Oliver; "The Patient Lo," Mary Lois Leffingwell; orchestra; presentation of class, Principal E. T. Boughn; presentation of diplomas, by president of the Union high school board, G. C. Nevins; orchestra; benediction. The members of the graduating class are Mary Lois Leffingwell, Grace Allen, O. Lister Sears, Sidney L. Boughn, J. Boyd Oliver, Lorna W. De Vana, Ruth Leffingwell.

The Deciduous Fruit association has sold this week 150 tons of apricots at $27 a ton. The crop for the season is estimated at several hundred tons, somewhat smaller than last year's crop, but the price is much higher.

"The Private Secretary," given at the opera house last evening, was the best entertainment ever given at Hemet. The cast was particularly well chosen, and all took their parts well.

Alfred Jacques, as Gibson, the tailor, began the fun at his first entrance and kept the house laughing till the curtain went down the last time. V. H. Wilson, as the private secretary, a role entirely different from any he has taken; heretofore, was another source of merriment, and with pious and grieved manner caused many a burst of applause. Stanley Graham made his first appearance on the stage last evening, taking the part of the butler. He was especially good, and was heartily encored. Mr. Reiland, and William Brooke sustained their parts with a great deal of dignity. Miss Hudson as the chaperon, acted her part well and looked exceedingly well, especially in the last act. Miss Clarke and Mrs. Clayton as the giddy school girls could not have done better. Roy Kellertress as Harry Marsland and Roy Haslett as Douglas Catermole, on whom the plot of the play depends, acted quickly and naturally in the dilemmas in which they often found themselves. Great credit should be given to Mr. Haslett, who managed the play and who put it on.

Rev. William Pearce will preach on the subject, "If God Owns the Sheep, Who Owns the Fleeces?" Sunday morning, and in the evening his topic will be "Is Drunkenness the Product of Our Industrial Conditions or the Result of the Depravity of the Human Heart?"

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Crumrine have been visiting Mrs. Crumrine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Brubaker, this

PRETTY WEDDING IS SOLEMNIZED THURSDAY

Cutler Densmore Nuptials at New Home West of Town—Incubator Burned on Rigg-Williams Ranch.

[Enterprise Special News Service]
PERRIS, May 22.—One of the most beautiful weddings that has ever taken place here was that of M. Chester Cutler and Miss Hazel Irene Densmore, which was solemnized Thursday evening at the cozy little home that the groom has fitted up for his bride near the foothills west of town. About forty of the relatives and close friends witnessed the nuptials. Rev. J. B. Long, pastor of the Congregational church, officiated, using the ring ceremony. White and green were the colors used in the pretty floral decorations of the parlor. The marriage vows were pledged beneath a beautiful wedding bell of white roses. The dining room was attractive in red and green. A centerpiece of lovely red roses and similar adorned the bride's table. The bride was gowned in a handsome white silk trimmed with white lace and wore orange blossoms in her hair. Her attendants were Miss Edith Cutler and Miss Bessie Densmore. Emmet Noonan assisted as best man and the groom was also attended by his brother, Charley Cutler. Mildred Noonan and Mildred Densmore, faintly dressed in white, were flower girls and each carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Little Jimmie Noonan carried the ring in the heart of a lovely pink rose. At the entrance of the bridal party, Lohengrin's bridal chorus was played by Miss Leah Murphy, and during the ceremony "Annie Laurie" was softly played. Miss Murphy being accompanied by Miss Lily Noonan on the violin. After congratulations a wedding supper was served.

The bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Densmore and has spent most of her life here. The groom is the eldest son of Mrs. Will Noonan and is also widely known.

Many useful and beautiful wedding gifts were received, attesting the popularity of the young people.

JOHN ROBINSON FOUND GUILTY BY JURY

Of Violating Local Liquor Ordinance—Jury Out All Night—McDonald To Be Tried for Bribery.

[By the Associated Press]
ELSINORE, May 22.—After two days of examining venire men, a jury was secured last evening in the John Robinson Jr. liquor case at about 4:30 p. m. as follows: H. K. Perry, J. K. Schanck, John Timmis, W. P. Haworth, Peter Wall, Guy G. Willsey, C. J. Smith, J. W. Snow, J. Emory, E. J. McCarthy, Horace Bury, and Benj. Walters. At 7 p. m. Attorney W. C. Maloy opened the case for the prosecution in the recorder's court by reading the indictment. Frank E. Daley of San Bernardino, attorney for Robinson, entered an exception and asked that the case be dismissed on the ground that the indictment was not properly drawn. This was overruled by Recorder Harrison. Attorney Maloy read section 1 of ordinance No. 76, stating that he intended to prove a violation of this section. A. J. McDonald, Earl Crane and City Marshal Charles Colton were called as witnesses by the prosecution. Their testimony in brief was as follows: That on the night of the 7th of May, Detective McDonald swore that he called John Robinson out of the poolroom and told him that he wanted some whiskey; that Robinson said he would get it for him if McDonald would give him the money. He gave Robinson 75 cents, and Robinson went up the street and in a short time returned and delivered to him a bottle of whiskey, the location of the delivery being near the Schanck jewelry store. He and Robinson then went behind the store and each took a couple of drinks of whiskey; that they then separated and that he went to the Armory hall, where Marshal Colton searched him and found the whiskey in his possession.

Marshal Colton testified that he searched McDonald at the Armory hall for whiskey and found none; that he followed McDonald uptown until he saw Deputy Crane. That he then went back to the Armory hall and that McDonald returned in about one-half hour; that he again searched him and found a partially filled bottle of whiskey in his possession; that they then went to the home of Attorney Maloy, where the bottle was marked and sealed. The bottle was produced as evidence.

Earl Crane, the deputy city marshal, testified that he saw the meeting between McDonald and Robinson, but that he did not see the transfer of any bottle or package.

The defendant testified that he had never bought any whiskey for McDonald, but that he had drunk with him behind Schanck's store from a bottle belonging to McDonald, but did not know whether or not the date was May 7th. He testified that he had also drunk with McDonald at other times.

At about 2 a. m. the jury was still unable to come to an agreement. They were sent back by the recorder for further deliberation. A verdict of guilty was rendered at 6:15 a. m. today. Sentence will be pronounced Monday morning, May 24, at 10 a. m. Robinson states that it is his intention to appeal the case.

Bribery Hearing
The case of alleged bribery brought by Louis Yung of the Mission winery against A. J. McDonald, the city's hired detective in the liquor case now pending, will come up for a hearing Wednesday afternoon, May 26.

Society Doings
About $20 was netted last evening at the old-fashioned social given by the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church in the Bank hall. A delightful musical program was rendered by S. G. Powell and Mrs. Sylvia Boyd gave two numbers. Prof. E. N. Chickering gave recitation; Miss Hazel Owen of Pomona and Miss Ivy Yates each gave solos, and Mr. and Mrs. Gillispie, also out of town people, gave a couple of duets. The hall and tables were beautifully decorated and strawberries and ice cream and cake were served after the program.

May 31 the Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church will give their annual ice cream sale in the Collier building on Main street.
