BANNING

Pacific Telephone Company Men Start Work at Beaumont—Odd Fellows' Meeting Is Well Attended—Special Meetings at Methodist Church—Local Briefs

[Daily Press Special News Service] BANNING, Jan. 26.—A crew of men of the Pacific Telephone Company, started work near here last Monday, their paraphernalia having been brought here and unloaded the Saturday before. Work on the Yuma line seems to be progressing rapidly.

Local Odd Fellows held their regular weekly meeting last Monday evening. If regularity of meetings is any test for the standard of lodges, the Banning chapter must stand high in the list of Southern California Odd Fellow lodges, for every Monday evening sees their ball lighted and a goodly number of the faithful members present. This lodge is certainly a live one.

Special meetings are being held this week at the Methodist church by Rev. Frank Lucas, pastor of the church. Monday night was the only one on which a meeting did not occur. Because of these meetings the meeting of the German Club, which was to have been held at the home of H. P. Bestor, was postponed until next Tuesday evening.

A large number of motorcycles passed through Banning last Sunday on their way toward the desert. As fast as possible the tournament of the high school tennis club is progressing. Rain began to fall here Tuesday morning about 10 o'clock. Although the ranchers are glad to see it, the moisture at this particular time will interrupt a good deal of plowing.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Curtis of Colton spent the week-end in Banning, and were the guests of E. L. Robertson on a quail hunt and picnic near Hill Grade on Sunday. They returned Monday morning to Colton. Mrs. J. C. King returned Saturday from Los Angeles. Miss Harriet King is visiting her sister at San Fernando for a few days. Frank Eschwig arrived here Monday morning for a visit at the home of his mother, Mrs. Barbara Eschwig.

CORONA

Cornerstone of New Congregational Church Is Laid by Rev. Chester Ferris, the Pastor; Corona Ministers Assist—Ladies' Guild of Episcopal Church Holds Meeting

[Daily Press Special News Service] CORONA, Jan. 26.—The beautiful granite cornerstone of the new Congregational church that is being built on the corner of Eighth and Ramona streets was laid yesterday by Rev. Chester Ferris, pastor of the church, in the presence of a large number of people who assembled to witness the important event.

The service was impressive and the address delivered by the pastor

BEAUMONT

Woman Resident Is Summoned Beyond—Entertainment Given by Board of Trade Is Decided Success—Beaumont Poultry Association Is Formed—Around the Town

[Daily Press Special News Service] BEAUMONT, Jan. 26.—The many friends of Mrs. Mattie Martin were grieved to hear of her death Monday morning. Her illness has been of long duration, covering a period of several years and of a tubercular nature. She leaves three children and a sister, Mrs. G. W. Mathers of this place. The funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the United Presbyterian church.

Pass City Briefs The board of trade's entertainment Monday night was a decided success. Several selections were played by the Mandolin Club and Mrs. Melvin Bartlett sang several songs accompanied by Dorothy Lee at the piano. The addresses on "The Needs of Beaumont," given by A. J. Burdick, W. J. Dwyer, Rev. Mr. Platt and J. W. Elder, were all very interesting.

At the meeting of the Beaumont Poultry Association last Saturday night about thirty members were enrolled. W. J. Dwyer was elected president, J. W. Baker vice president and O. L. Seykora, secretary and treasurer. It is their aim to get their poultry supplies at the lowest wholesale price.

The clerks of F. E. Wall's grocery store have been taking an invoice this week preparatory to Robert Storer's taking possession of the store.

J. J. McCoy, under the direction of the board of trade has purchased 250 feet of fire hose and a small chemical engine for the protection of the people of Beaumont against fire.

A fine illustrated circular, telling of the advantages of Beaumont has been issued by the board of trade, through the Beaumont Leader. This pamphlet has twelve large pages and cover and 10,000 of them have been printed, which will be sent throughout the country.

Miss Louise Strang, the missionary from Korea, gave a very interesting talk on her travels and works, at the First Presbyterian church last Sunday.

The Colton Band Minstrels gave a very funny entertainment Saturday night. A dance was held after the show.

R. S. Lewis is again with his family, coming up from Anaheim Sunday. Mrs. Jeanette Studdimore of San Diego is visiting her cousin, Mrs. R. S. Lewis.

A large new sign has been painted on the Beaumont Leader office, by our local artist, J. M. Greig.

The Beaumont schools enjoyed a half holiday Wednesday afternoon. Miss Naomi Platt returned home Tuesday from Los Angeles, where she has been visiting her sister and mother.

John England made a business trip to the county seat Tuesday.

WILDOMAR

[Daily Press Special News Service] WILDOMAR, Jan. 26.—The grain that was in before the first rain is up and growing fine. Soon there will be green fields in every direction as this is a grain and hay raising valley principally.

J. C. Glenn has been so ill with the grippe that Dr. Walker from Elsinore, was sent for. He is better at present. Mrs. B. F. Taylor also suffered severely for a few days from the same complaint.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Henderson of Grand avenue are entertaining a new arrival. She will most probably stay some eighteen or twenty years as she arrived from the "land of nowhere" last Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Thomas was up to Riverside on a shopping expedition last week. Those 19c sales like a good many dollars from the county.

Miss Geismaine Brown, one of West Riverside's teachers, came down on the evening train last Friday and made a two days' visit with her sis-

MURRIETA

[Daily Press Special News Service] MURRIETA, Jan. 26.—Miss Barbara Deering, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Deering, and Leslie A. Rawles, a nephew of B. W. Tarwater, were married at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning. They departed on the noon train for Imperial where they will make their future home. Mr. Rawles has a good position in a store in that thriving town.

B. W. Tarwater is erecting a large concrete store building on the corner of B street and Washington avenue, where North's blacksmith shop formerly stood. Castor & McKinney of Colton have the contract and have already received several cars of material.

A carload of eucalyptus trees is on the way here from Pomona and will be put out by parties who bought land of The Eucalyptus Company last year out on the McCarty tract.

Mrs. L. J. Swain has moved back to Murrieta and will reside here in future.

Robert Freeman's family have returned here after several months spent in Colton and Fullerton.

Judge Anderson is on the sick list.

Ben Doolittle and family of Oregon arrived last week and will remain here some time. Mr. Doolittle was one of Murrieta's early settlers but has been away for nearly 25 years.

Prof. Hargrave gave a Mexican dinner at the residence of Vernice James last Sunday. About 50 persons were present and enjoyed the barbecue.

HEMET

[Daily Press Special News Service] HEMET, Jan. 26.—For the third time in the last two weeks a drenching rain storm has visited the Hemet valley. The rain began falling early Tuesday evening, continued at intervals during the night, and showed no sign of clearing up until noon yesterday. This last rain practically assures good crops. There is now an abundance of water in Lake Hemet.

The W. C. T. U. of Hemet held an important meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Samuel Black. Mrs. Kyes, the superintendent of county work, was present and gave a stirring address.

The Woman's Club met today at the home of Mrs. C. E. Carson. Some matters pertaining to the coming play, "Trelawney of the Wells," and to the public library were discussed.

Bishop Johnson of Los Angeles will hold services at the Mission of the Good Shepherd next Sunday morning. The church will be dedicated later.

PERRIS

[Daily Press Special News Service] PERRIS, Jan. 26.—Attorney W. H. Ellis has purchased of W. R. Morrison the lot and building on Main street which has been occupied for a number of years by the Chinese restaurant. Consideration was $1200. Mr. Ellis is having the building repainted and papered, which adds very much to its appearance.

Gus Almqvist is erecting a garage of cement building blocks for S. V. Gates, adjoining Mr. Gates' office on Main street.

The total rainfall for the present storm up to yesterday morning was 50 of an inch.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church met Tuesday afternoon at the parsonage.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Bogle arrived Saturday on the noon train from Lompoc on a short visit to Mr. Bogle's sister, Mrs. A. O. Tolbert. Mr. and Mrs. Bogle were married on Thursday last and were on their wedding trip through the southern part of the state. Mr. Bogle spent some time here last August and was very favorably impressed with this valley.

Mrs. M. P. Deutsch is still very ill at her home on Fourth street. Dr. Roblee of Riverside and Dr. Sheldon of this place are in attendance.

J. E. Walker returned last week from a few weeks' visit to Santa Maria. On account of the illness of their baby, Mrs. Walker will remain a few weeks longer.
